

Store set to close down

Three years on: Wellchester is to cease trading

THREE years after rising from the ashes Dorchester's former Woolworth store is to close again.

Staff member Robert Power has confirmed that Wellchester is starting what is a final closing down sale, although no date has been set for closure.

The shop rose to national attention when former Saturday girl Claire Robertson put together a business plan and saved the former Woolworth's building and twenty jobs.

BBC Radio 2 DJ Chris Evans was so taken with the story that he officially re-opened the store on March 11th 2009.

Less than a month later a BBC documentary told How Woolies Became Wellies and within three months the business boasted its 100,000th customer.

by Trevor Bevens

A name change was then forced on the business when the Shop Direct Group, owners of the Woolworth brand, took legal action to force a change from Wellworth to Wellchester.

In recent weeks opening manager Claire Robertson has left the business and it now looks likely that the store will be closed – unless another saviour can be found.

At the time of the name change Ms Robertson said: "Shop Direct, the parent of Littlewoods, owner of Woolworths name, initially supported the opening of the former Woolworths store in Dorchester as Wellworths – but then sought an agreement which would place limits on the growth of the business under the Wellworths name.

"Regretfully, rather than accept those limits, Wellworths has decided to replace the Wellworths name with Wellchester."

It appears that the gamble on growth, despite branching out into an on-line business, has now failed.

The business is understood to owned by a consortium set up by an Irish property investor who owns the South Street building.

RUNNING enthusiast Brian Shelley was born in Nottingham.

After taking degree courses in Surrey and Cardiff he forged a career in education, specialising in teaching children with learning and behaviour difficulties. After 24 years as headteacher of a special needs school he retired and moved to Bridport where he now lives.

A keen runner for over 30 years, the 64-year-old is secretary of Bridport Runners as well as clerk to the governors of St Mary's Primary School.

He is married with two sons and four grandchildren.

■ HAVE you always loved running?

I started running over 30 years ago to keep fit. It was really to help with my basketball and squash, but it soon became an obsession and started to take precedence.

■ DO you enjoy any other sports?

I enjoy watching cricket and football, especially Derby County. I have supported the Rams since I lived in Derby and saw the great Brian Clough's team win the league in the 70's.

■ WHAT made you join the Bridport Runners?

I joined the Bridport Runners completely by accident. I was running past St Mary's Playing Field in Bridport and saw the club training there. Before that, I had been running on my own or occasionally with just one or two friends for over 30 years. The club is small and friendly and accepts all standards of runners of all ages. My own running has improved a great deal since joining the club.

■ IS the Bridport area a good place for running?

This is the best place I know for running. What could be better than running along the Jurassic Coast? Whenever I am struggling up the paths to the top of Thorncombe Beacon in the early morning or late evening I think of all those poor runners in towns and cities who only have roads or parks to run through.

■ WHICH sportsmen/women do you admire?

I greatly admire Paula Ratcliffe, Mo Farrah and Brian Clough. I also admire Peter Taylor and Colin Todd (both played for Derby County and England).

■ ARE there any tips or secrets to improving running technique?

I really recommend running with a group. It gives you a chance to share ideas and worries about injuries and niggles. It's also important to listen to what your body is telling you – it knows best.

I have run eight marathons, including London, New York and Brighton. It was my second visit to New York so I had seen all the sights already, but it is my favourite city and to be able to run through all the boroughs with such evocative names for people brought up on American films and TV - Brooklyn, the Bronx, etc. Wow. Also it was the first time I had run a marathon with my son. That was special.

60 SECOND INTERVIEW

■ WHAT do you eat prior to a long run?

Muesli or porridge with honey

■ HAVE you had any adventures while running?

I was bitten by a horse on a footpath through a field I used regularly in Kent. Usually the horse stayed at the other end of the field. On this occasion he seemed to corner me near the stile and as I turned to get over it he gave me a nip on my shoulder, bruising it. I have been wary of horses ever since.

Another time I was running along a footpath with a friend. I was ahead of him as I was a bit younger than him and a bit faster.

Suddenly he sprinted past me shouting "bullocks!" I saw just behind him a herd of young cows galloping towards us. I speeded up and luckily we both made the stile before the bullocks.

■ HOW many pairs of running shoes do you go through a year?

Two, one road pair and one off road pair.

■ DO you have a dream run you would like to take part in?

Along a beach made up of firm sand that stretches for miles and miles beside a sparkling sea, or perhaps following our amazing network of coastal footpaths going around the whole coastline of Great Britain.

■ WHAT would you say to someone thinking of taking up running?

Go for it, it not only keeps you fit, it is the best form of stress release I know. It's also the best cure for a hangover (if you can get past the first mile). Try out the Great Bridport Fun Run on July 15th or join the Bridport Runners. Don't use a treadmill, get out and enjoy the fresh air and scenery.

■ WHICH person living or dead would you ideally like to have running alongside you on a long run?

Both my grandfathers. One died in 1906 and the other in 1920, 30 years before I was born. Knowing how precious my relationship is with my grandchildren it would have been lovely to talk to them about their life experiences so different from my own, especially my maternal grandfather who was a bargee on the Gloucester Birmingham Canal in the early years of the 20th century.

Teacher takes digital award

A DORCHESTER teacher has won the South West Digital Educator of the Year Award.

Gary Spracklen, acting assistant head at the Prince of Wales First School, was presented with the award at South West Digital Educators Conference, held in Plymouth.

The conference, organised in partnership between the Open University, Plymouth University and the South West Grid for Learning, highlighted the very best practice in teaching with technology from across the South West of England.

Gary's win was made even more significant by the fact it was voted for by the conference delegates, all leading educators themselves.

"I am overwhelmed by the award and truly grateful to everyone who voted for me," said Gary.

Also making presentations at the conference were Richard Scott, media development manager and science teacher and Scott Munro from the Thomas Hardy Academy.

The pair, along with Gary, had beaten a strong field of applicants to make the final 10.

Scott and Richard presented a series of seminars to delegates about how animation could be used as a motivator and aid to information retention, in students who otherwise are not always highly motivated.

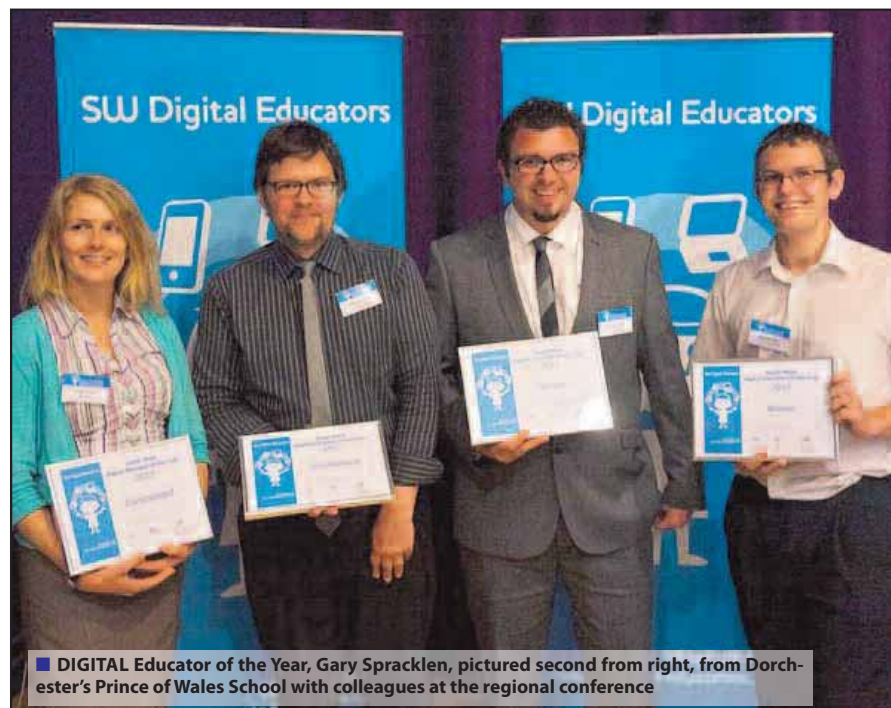

Said Richard: "It has been inspirational to see quiet students lead the planning, preparing, filming or editing phases: it is great that we have been able to share this at a regional level, hopefully inspiring other to follow in the same way as us".

Gary's winning work was focused on how he has inspired his colleagues to embrace and apply new technologies to support, engage and develop all pupils including those with severe physical disabilities.

Gary showed delegates how new technologies have transformed pupils learning at the Prince of Wales First School, leaving a lasting impact in pupil's lives.

Gary, who recently led the keynote speech at the Dorset County Council's ICT in Schools Conference 2012, says he is looking forward to continuing his work at the Prince of Wales First School, Dorchester.

The school has recently purchased iPads to further support pupils learning.

First bus route in the south to go 'all-electric'

DORCHESTER now has an electric bus services – the first in the south.

The number six service, between the town centre and Poundbury, uses two £197,000 electric buses.

Both are charged using power from the anaerobic digester at Rainbow Farm, on the Martinstown road.

In normal circumstances the vehicles 56 batteries can take up to eight hours to recharge and give a range of around 75 miles.

Most of the cost of the electric vehicles has been paid for from a Department of Transport grant with the rest coming from the Dorset County Council and West Dorset District Council, as well as the Duchy of Cornwall.

Men risking lives by drink driving, say police

YOUNG men continue to risk lives by drink driving, with almost half of all the drivers arrested by police in their early summer campaign were men aged under 30.

A hundred drivers were arrested – an increase on last summer's 88.

During the month, until the end of June, every driver involved in a collision was breath tested.

Chief Inspector Matt Butler, head of Dorset Police's traffic unit, said: "It is really disappointing to see that drink drive arrests have increased for the second summer running.

"In the 12 months before the campaign started, there were four fatal road traffic collisions in Dorset that were attributed to driving or riding while under the influence of alcohol. This accounts for nearly a quarter of all fatal collisions during that time.

"Of the 100 arrests during the June campaign, a quarter of these were made following a collision.

"This shows that collisions really do happen if you drive under the influence of alcohol.

"Our message, as ever, remains simple – do not risk lives by drinking and driving."

If convicted, all of the drivers arrested during the campaign will face at least a 12 month driving ban.

They will also face a fine of up to £5,000, up to six months in prison and a criminal record.

Chief Inspector Butler is asking the public to remain vigilant and report suspected drink drivers:

"Members of the public should dial 999 if they suspect someone is driving, or is about to drive, under the influence of alcohol or drugs so that we can intercept that vehicle.

"Now that the summer campaign has come to an end it doesn't mean we will stop pursuing irresponsible drivers on our roads. We will continue to target drink drivers throughout this special summer in Dorset.

If a member of the public has information about regular drink or drug drivers, they should contact Dorset Police in confidence on the non-emergency number 101 to report this.

Alternatively, members of the public can call the free and anonymous Crimestoppers line on 0800 555 111.

A CENTRE to support victims of sexual assault has opened in Dorset.

The centre, which is open to anyone, is a partnership project led by Dorset Police and NHS Dorset and supported by Dorset Rape Crisis Support Centre.

It will provide victims with the help that they choose, including crisis support, counselling referral, health and welfare, information, police and forensics, if they decide to report the offence.

Victims can contact the centre – as a self-referral – or come as a referral from the police or any other agency. Self-referrals simply dial 0845 519 8638 to make an appointment or email contact@arcdorset.org.uk.

Those that self-refer do not have to report the assault to the police. They will be given all the necessary information so that they can make an informed choice about whether or not to do so. If they do decide to report the offence, they will be informed and supported throughout the process.

Detective Superintendent Sara Glen has been part of the partnership team integral to creating the centre: "We want victims to feel safe and sheltered at what is a very traumatic time for them.

"Whereas previously it would not have been clear to a victim the full range of service available to them following an attack, now they can access multi-agency support by picking up the telephone... This means that, initially, when everything is still so raw they will not have to explain their story over and over again."

A SENIOR Liberal Democrat councillor and former Dorchester Mayor, Trevor Jones, has criticised the district council's custody of the Tolpuddle Martyr's Court.

The historic court forms part of the Shire Hall, owned by West Dorset District Council.

The authority is currently trying to sell its offices in High West Street although it will retain the Old Court and is currently bidding for Lottery Grant to improve it as an attraction.

Mr Jones has hit back at the district council's comments in a letter to View from Dorchester.

See the letter on page 5.

Call to help make blue butterflies

A CALL has gone out to all creative people in the area to get making butterflies!

The Portland Blue Butterfly Project has been busily creating the little creatures since May. The plan is for them to be studded all over the High Angle Battery on Portland to enhance the Doldrum's Lair production, part of the Battle for the Winds opening ceremony for the sailing events of the London 2012 Olympics on July 27th.

The aim was to have 2692 butterflies - one to represent every young person who lives on Portland. Although the organisers - Activate Performing Arts and Portland Community Partnership - are doing really well, they are still several hundred short of their target.

The butterfly designs are based on the Cretaceous Silver Studded Blue Butterfly which is found only on Portland.

Butterflies should be no larger than 10cm or four inches wide and can be made from any material including old cans, felt, fabric, plastic, beads, cardboard, metal and wood, some have even been knitted. As they will be outside materials with some resistance to the weather would be best. Butterflies should be based on blue in the middle with a thin, black inner edging and a wider white outer edging.

Lots of ideas and a template for the shape can be downloaded from <http://portlandbluebutterfly.blogspot.co.uk/>

Each butterfly needs to be attached to wire so it can be placed into the grass around the High Angle Battery site. If you would like some free floristry wire to attach to your butterfly, you can pick some up from the Island Community Action office or contact 07815 756 946. An artist can help you attach it if you cannot manage this part yourself.

The deadline for completed butterflies has been extended to July 20th and they can be dropped off at at Island Community Action, Easton Centre between the hours of 10-2pm or sent to Activate Performing Arts, 7-9 The Little Keep, The Barracks, Bridport Road, Dorchester, Dorset DT1 1SQ.

Butterflies will become part of an artwork, and cannot be returned. The organisers will be most grateful for any butterflies submitted, including multiple entries.

Writer's award

Gail Aldwin picked up the top prize in the Slim Volume, Small Edition competition. She submitted a selection of very short stories, also known as flash fiction, for consideration.

Adjudicator Geoff Fisher of CPI Antony Rowe Limited awarded the prize and gave feedback at the Writers' Awards Reception in the Strip Auditorium at the University of Winchester.

Gail won the opportunity to see a collection of her writing in print. She will receive 60 copies of a monochrome paperback book containing her work. The book titled Four Buses will be available in early 2013.

Gail Aldwin says she enjoys writing short stories and flash fiction "as an antidote to the slog of completing a novel".

West Dorset public is not ready to 'draw a line in sand'

■ DESPITE the fact that West Dorset District Council (WDDC) has pushed ahead on building Charles Street offices, the West Dorset public is clearly not agreeing to 'draw a line in the sand' on opposition to it, as had been requested by the council leader.

Cllr Alistair Chisholm called what proved to be probably the biggest public meeting in Dorchester for nearly four years (280 people) on July 4th, who heard a debrief from him on the KPMG report and the six recommendations for improvement that KPMG have set down for implementation by WDDC in its external auditors' report on the Charles Street offices.

The meeting also heard of how KPMG – under their previous rating system – would have graded WDDC as achieving only a 'two' rating out of a possible 'four' on value for money for this project.

Cllr Trevor Jones spoke of the fact that the council had undertaken to outline its plans on Phase Two now within three weeks (however, sadly the next day the chief executive stated this would now be put back till 'the autumn').

Professor Philip Hanson – in outlining his views on the opportunity cost of the offices moving to Charles Street – recommended the establishment of a WDDC finance committee with an obligation to commission expert financial advice on any investment project worth more than (say) £100k.

And there were around 30 often passionate contributions of views from the floor.

The evening concluded with 70 of those present completing Public Holds WDDC to Account action sheets, identifying which of a range of projects they would now wish to actively work on to improve West Dorset democracy.

Projects range from attending and reporting on various council meetings and asking public questions, to studying WDDC agendas, reports and minutes, appraising the accuracy of WDDC's Community Link publication and providing our group with formal planning experience.

The evening represented the clearest indication of public resistance to the present council's practices on democracy.

This has been given further urgency following the controversy surrounding WDDC's handling of the planning application on Bridport's Quadrant area.

The speakers were very grateful to all who attended, despite the fact that Andy Murray had just squared his quarter-final match at 1-1....!

Leader would defend action

■ IN response to some mildly critical press comments about their latest attempt to improve the Old Crown Court which they own and is of immense historical importance the West Dorset District Council leader leaps to defend their stewardship over recent decades.

Well he would, wouldn't he! Let us, though, look at the record.

Firstly, they have spent next to nothing on it since they inherited it 40 years ago.

Secondly, they bid for lottery money about 10 years ago and failed.

Thirdly, their Court Guides went on strike a few years ago because of their abysmal pay.

Fourthly, they tried to get the National Trust to take it over and failed.

Quite an impressive record, as a result of which the court does not even feature on Trip Advisor as a Dorchester visitor attraction.

I hope the present efforts bear fruit but if I were Mr Gould I would keep quiet until they do.

Allow extra travel time

Patients travelling to Dorset County Hospital for appointments today and tomorrow, July 12th and 13th, are being reminded to allow extra time for their journey.

Delays are expected on some routes because of the Olympic torch relay which may also impact on appointments at Weymouth Hospital on Friday.

Director of operations Patricia Miller said: "Appointments will be running as normal but local traffic is expected to be disrupted so patients should make sure they give themselves plenty of time to travel.

"Patients must bring their appointment letter with them on the day as they will need to present this to the car park attendants to park on site."

Anyone who has queries or concerns should call the phone number on their appointment letter.

Tim was also joined by representatives from his sponsors - Belle Construction and KG Roofing.

Tim said, "I'm sure that we can achieve the £4,000 mark, so that the hospices get a couple of grand each. "So I entered the Eddystone Challenge on July 7th and will raced my kayak 28 miles around the Plymouth lighthouse".

In preparation for his London to Paris event, Tim and Eddie kayaked 100 miles around the island of Lanzarote setting a record of three days and two hours - then, after a day's rest Tim ran 32miles in 30 degree heat.

Judo club's open event

DORCHESTER Judo Club threw open its doors on Saturday - so people could watch club members throwing themselves about.

The open day saw club instructors, and those from the Dorchester Brazilian Jujitsu Club which also uses the hall, demonstrating a range of throws and defences from attack.

Chief instructor for the Dorchester Judo Club, Andrew Jump, says the club remains popular with an active junior and adult section, but is keen to attract more members.

"It is a sport which is equally attractive to male and female participants and, of course, has now attained Olympic status," said Andrew.

He says the sport is not only a good way of keeping fit but helps participants to build self-confidence.

The club holds a junior session from 6pm to 7pm on Wednesdays and an adult session every Wednesday from 7pm until 8.30pm.

Beginners are welcome to attend. To contact the club, first email info@dorchesterjudoclub.co.uk.

Also using the building, at Sawmills Lane off Weymouth Avenue, is the Dorchester Brazilian Jujitsu Club who have a session for those aged 13 and over on Sunday afternoons from 3pm to 5pm.

Other martial arts groups using the building include Fudoshin Bujutsu, Ken-jutsu and Fudoshin Bu-jutsu on Monday and JuJitsu, Kobudo and Bu-jutsu on Thursday evenings.

Floods cause chaos on area's roads

by Trevor Bevins
trevor.bevins@virgin.net

CARS were left abandoned on main roads around Dorchester on Saturday as torrential rain left drains unable to cope with the deluge.

On Monday morning the two main roads in and out of the town, the A35 and A37, were still closed – leaving motorists asking questions about highway maintenance.

As traffic queues backed up engineers put in a one-way system on the A37 at Stratton but on the A35 at Winterbourne Abbas a burst water main near the Little Chef added to the misery and the road remained shut.

Road closed signs remained in place on many routes through the county town on Monday morning – although many of the routes were passable. These included the A35 at London Road where the closure signs were still up at lunchtime despite there being no water on the road, and the Old Sherborne Road where diversions were in place through Charlton Down and Charminster despite the water at Lower Burton being no more than 3 inches deep.

Angry residents at Stratton contacted the RSPCA after no attempts were made to rescue stranded sheep and several were found dead on Sunday morning.

In Dorchester on Saturday the Veterans Parade was cancelled and the event forced indoors while other outdoor events were cancelled or forced to find shelter.

The One World multicultural event at King's Road on Sunday was also put off and village fetes at Cerne Abbas and Frampton also suffered.

Dorchester's main streets were virtually empty by lunchtime on Saturday with traders expected to be looking back on the day as one of the worst July Saturdays for years.

Weathermen confirmed that, as predicted, a month's average July rainfall fell in just a few hours.

On the West Stafford bypass floodwaters, over a foot deep, washed over both carriageways leaving driver pushing their vehicles free and some left abandoned by the side of the road.

Most turned around and made their way around on the old road through the village but some, especially those with four-wheel drives, braved the waters. One motorcyclist switched his engine off and pushed his machine through (pictured).

Dorset Fire and Rescue said its crews had attended more than 200

"flooding or water related incidents" during the weekend.

Dorset police issued a warning to motorists about the adverse conditions.

Chief Superintendent David Griffiths said: "Do not take risks driving through flood waters. This is not just important for motorist's own vehicles but also in view of other people's property as the spray caused by driving through deep water can lead to waves, flooding adjacent properties and vehicles."

Commuters trying to get too or from Dorchester on Monday found many of the usual short-cuts closed including the Portesham to Martinstown Road, the B3159 at Winterbourne Steepleton, the Old Sherborne Road, the back road from old Poundbury to Bradford Peverell and the single-track road from Martinstown to Winterbourne Monkton.

Also closed was the road alongside Came Down up from Sutton Poyntz and Preston.

For rail passengers on the Weymouth to Bristol line flooding at Yetminster forced the cancellation of services with the only alternative being offered via Southampton and then Westbury.

Bride Valley Motors received more than 150 call outs from stranded motorists over the weekend with the company's rescue crews having to take long diversions to reach stranded drivers.

Opposite the garage the Winterbourne Valley school was forced to shut on Monday after staff and the majority of pupils were unable to make it in.

Aiden Chapman from The Phoenix Bakery, who has recently been cooking on TV with Hugh FW.

Family entertainment will keep the whole family busy – alongside the shopping and jazz for mum and the beer for dad, kids will be amused with the attractions, bouncy castle and a kids magic show. Come and relax. We have sushi, crepes, delicious breads and cakes, creamy fudge and local farmers produce. You can even get your fortune read this year or just relax in the sunshine with a glass of Pimms listening to the jazz band or watching the cookery demonstrations.

German firm provides wheelie bins to homes

A GERMAN company has been chosen to provide wheelie bins to thousands of homes in Dorset – despite being more expensive than rivals.

The £6m contract has gone to Craemer UK Limited, which despite its name is German-owned.

A County Hall insider has claimed in an email to View from Dorchester that the bid was £400,000 more than the cheapest.

Dorset Waste Partnership has admitted that the Craemer bid was not the cheapest but says that the quality of the product also had to be taken into account.

Chair of the Partnership Cllr Hilary Cox said that the bins will be made in Shropshire and gradually introduced across Dorset over the next three years as all the authorities switch to a new system of collection – which it is claimed will improve Dorset's recycling waste.

As reported in View From last week another company, based in Leeds, has won a £700,000 contract to supply smaller containers for kitchen waste.

Mrs Cox says that even after the expense of buying the new bins and distributing them across the county there should be a £2m a year saving, compared to the existing system.

West Dorset and Weymouth and Portland will not receive their new bins until at least 2013/14.

HINTS and tips on acting for radio are being offered by the Doorway Theatre Company in a workshop at Martinstown.

Acting on Air, with freelance BBC Radio Drama director Peter Lesley Wild and Writer Stephanie Dale, takes place at Martinstown Village Hall on Sunday, July 22nd at 6.30pm.

The session will explore how acting on the radio differs from acting on stage, how do you get the best out of playing to the microphone and how to make a radio script "come off the page"?

Using recent BBC scripts, extracts from the forthcoming Doorway audio production

Sea Me, and recorded extracts from recent broadcasts, participants are being promised a fun-filled couple of hours learning how to get the best out of acting on the radio.

Those who sign up can join the workshop or sit back and listen.

Tickets are £5 in advance by calling 01305 262182, or £6 on the door

Peter Leslie Wild is an award-winning audio drama producer and theatre director. His productions for BBC Radio include Stephanie Dale's drama-documentaries What Is Missing From Your Life and First Bite of the Air, and plays The Wife (part Peter has co-produced more than 25 drama-documentaries with Rosie Boulton. He recently directed series three of Ambridge Extra for Radio 4 Extra, and has directed many episodes of The Archers.

Stephanie Dale is a Midlands based playwright who writes for stage, radio and large-scale theatre.

Work includes: A Time to Keep (Dorchester Community Plays Association, 2007, co-written with David Edgar) Mary Macarthur (Midland Actors Theatre, TBC) and Believe Me (BBC Radio Four, 2011).

Current commissions include: Dealing with Dreams (Birmingham REP, 2014) Chester Mystery Plays (Chester Cathedral, 2012) Farnham Community Play and an adaptation of Moonfleet (Bristol Old Vic Theatre School, 2013) which will tour the South West.

Stephanie is also completing a new radio and stage play, Sea Me, for Doorway Theatre Company.

■ MERSEYSIDE poet and broadcaster Roger McGough will open Dorchester's biennial Hardy Conference in August. ## Cadets raise £700 for Afghan Heroes charity

THOMAS Hardye fundraisers Joss Minterne, Sam White and George Timms – hoping for £1,000 for the Afghan Heroes charity

THREE youngsters from the Thomas Hardye School have raised over £700 for the charity Afghan Heroes.

Joss Minterne, Sam White and George Timms are year 9 Cadets with the school based Combined Cadet Force.

Joss contacted the charity on behalf of the boys and since then has been selling wrist bands and car stickers at school and other events.

This included working for weekend at the recent Maiden Newton at War event where the bulk of the money was raised.

They also took their collection tins to this week's DASP concert at Thomas Hardye School.

The trio hope to raise at least £1,000 which they hope will go towards a Post Services Centre for discharged personnel.

■ SCOTT May's Daredevil Stunt Show, coming to the Dorset County Show this year

Extreme sports theme to this year's county show

THIS year's Dorset County Show will have an extreme Sports theme.

Topping the bill will be Scott May's Daredevil Stunt Show – perilous stunts performed on quads, bikes and trucks weighing up to seven tons.

Parkour is also to make its debut in the form of Team Roar, a group of talented free running athletes. Parkour, also known as free running, requires athletes to move through their environment by vaulting, rolling, running, climbing, and jumping over obstacles.

Also to feature in the September show will be Christian Moullec and his flying geese.

Show Secretary Sam Mackenzie-Green said: "In the year of the London 2012 Olympics, Sport was an obvious theme for the show."

The Show takes place on September 1st and 2nd.

Tickets, at £10 per adult in advance, can be bought at www.dorsetcountyshow.co.uk or from tourist information centres across Dorset. Members gain free access to the show and reduced entry to some classes.

GRAND OPENING FRIDAY 13TH & SATURDAY 14TH JULY

Animal House at 8 South Street, Bridport, opened its door as a pet and animal supplies store on the 7th April 2012 and thanks to great staff and customers we have not looked back since. It has been something of a whirlwind start, so much so that it has taken until now to organise an official opening. We decided to have an official opening for lots of reasons but we wanted to do so much that we decided to hold it over 2 days, this coming Friday and Saturday, 13th, 14th July. We want to use it an opportunity to introduce ourselves to people who still don't know we exist or what exactly we are but we also want to take the opportunity to say thank you to our existing customers both of the shop and Mark's market stall who have supported us so brilliantly. Mark has run his pet and animal supplies stall outside M & Co and HSBC bank on East Street for a few years now and weather permitting, he has done his best to keep many music lovers entertained by running his vinyl music stall next to the pet stall.

It's a strange mix but it works and we have carried that mix into the shop by having a "vinyl quarter", aka "Doghouse Music", at the back of the shop. Step up and out of the "small animal and cat" departments and suddenly you are surrounded by vintage and contemporary music posters and an eclectic mix of music covering most genres.

We wanted to create a shop that was fun to visit and a little quirky but that also promoted the values that are important to us and, we think, to the people of Bridport. We wanted a contemporary and well stocked pet and animal supplies store with a range of products for as many tastes and budgets as we have room for and we also wanted to create the feel of an old fashioned grocery store, but for animals, where customer service, politeness and a genuine desire to keep customers happy are our core values.

We have been so lucky to have found great staff both for on the stall and in the shop and they are all genuinely interested in what we sell and in matching the right products to the right customers. It is not just about selling on the day but about making sure people are happy with what they buy so that they will come back again.

Bridport is a unique place and one of the few towns in the South West to still have a great selection of independent retailers in its shops and wonderful street market, offering customers real choice and a variety of interesting products.

We wanted to be part of that and to use as many local products and talent as we could.

We have been very lucky so far to have found and worked with some great people such as Becky Kingston who designed our Animal House signs and Claire of Frolic fame who designed the brilliantly quirky music banner, also Rosemary Jacks Pottery and Kitsch Collars.

We have also teamed up with 2 great local companies, Dorwest and Hilton Herbs whose passion and belief in their respective products is inspiring

So come along and join us this Friday and Saturday and find out more about what we are about. We have lots of things planned for both days such as prize draws and the launch of our new loyalty cards.

We look forward to seeing you and your animals then.

stone.

A unique 'river' of beer bottles was the main focus of the garden as it meandered through the planting, symbolising a typical Dorset brown trout river.

"The Badger Beer Garden is everything we could have wished for. It captures the essence of the Dorset countryside which is at the heart of Badger Ales and has given us an opportunity to meet many people who already enjoy a bottle of Badger as well as introducing our Dorset ale to many thousands of garden lovers at Hampton Court.

"We are delighted to win such a coveted medal as it represents all the hard work and commitment of the team that has made the garden possible," said Anna Corbett, brand manager for Badger Ales.

Some elements of the Badger Beer Garden will now be relocated to Dorset.

The Heritage Fingerpost Sign will be repositioned in the gardens of The Crown Hotel, Blandford and part of the Portland stone path engraved with Badger paw prints will be incorporated into many of the hall and Woodhouse pubs throughout the county.

THE award-winning Badger Beer Garden at Hampton Court

STUDENTS from Kingston Maurward College have helped Dorset's Badger Ales win a Silver Gilt award at the RHS Hampton Court Palace Flower Show.

The Badger Beer Garden, created to celebrate beer and brewing, is the first ever show garden at Hampton Court to be sponsored by a brewery.

The Badger Beer Garden was designed by gold medal-winning designers, Flemons Warland Design, with students from Kingston Maurward College building the dry-stone walls and planting thousands of native plants.

Other local help came from the Portland Sculptor and Quarry Trust who hid eight Badger paw prints throughout the garden and created pathways made of Portland

Marshall James

MARSHALL James specialise in the domestic side of landscaping rather than the commercial market and although we have always carried out some regular maintenance, the majority of work has been and continues to be the making or altering of gardens.

Our philosophy is that your garden is an extension to your property, another room just as important as the others.

Our team has a combination of skills, specialities enabling us to take on more complicated schemes, but never will we make a distinction between whether your garden is large or small, it is your own individual space.

We have worked along side many of the well known designers and time and experience has enabled us to offer an 'in house' design service where we blend our own ideas and styles with a wide range of horticultural variables and individual aspirations of our customers.

The Company has competed twice at Chelsea, winning a Silver and Gold medal as well as the best Court-yard Garden in Show. Apart from working locally, we regularly travel to the other side of Dorchester, just south of Bath, Bristol, Taunton and Exeter. We offer a full horticultural service, design, hard and soft landscaping and specialist maintenance.

Sherborne Turf

FROM our location in the picturesque village of Trent, Sherborne Turf has been supplying the gardeners of Dorset, Somerset, Hampshire and Wiltshire with quality lawn turf and garden products for over 35 years. Our turf is grown in high quality farmland which forms part of The Trent Estate, using a unique blend of grasses that will knit together to form a firm base, negating the need for potentially harmful netting that could pose a trip hazard and be costly to remove.

Supplying the local area with fresh turf cut to order, low 'turf miles' mean our grass is green in more ways than one!

At Sherborne Turf, our product range has expanded to meet the needs of our customers. Garden soils are stored under cover in winter ready for delivery in bulk bags, along with a variety of top dressing, bark, mulch and compost for the serious gardener.

Deliveries are made using our own fleet of vehicles and drivers experienced in the handling of turf and associated products. While the trade standard for deliveries is 'kerb-side', our drivers understand this is not always practical for your gardens, and so we will always endeavour to place your items as conveniently as possible for you, subject to suitable access.

All of the staff at Sherborne Turf have experience of the items we sell, so for assistance on any aspect of your garden project, please give us a call on 01935 850388. Office hours are 8am to 6pm Monday to Friday, and Saturday mornings during busy periods.

Visit Portland, Dorset's own Treasure Island!

THE Isle of Portland is south of Weymouth and is the most southerly point in Dorset. It's famous for its stone that has been quarried for centuries providing features for famous national monuments such as St Paul's Cathedral.

Portland Bill, the most southerly tip of the "island" draws visitors from all over the world. Its distinctive red and white lighthouse still operates today and you can visit the Lighthouse Visitor Centre. Portland Harbour, the deepest man-made harbour in the UK, is going to be the location for the 2012 Olympic Games sailing trials. In the meantime, it's an ever-popular venue for a range of water sports.

The Isle of Portland is joined to the Dorset mainland solely by Chesil Beach - the long shingle bank that shields the Dorset coast between West Bay and Portland. Portland is Dorset's most southerly point lying five miles from Weymouth on the south coast.

Overlooking Portland Harbour is the sixteenth century Portland Castle. It was built under King Henry VIII in the early 1540's to defend the island from the French and Spanish. It is one of the best-preserved castles from this period and is open to the public between April-October.

Portland is one of the Gateway Towns on the Jurassic Coast World Heritage Site. There is an excellent viewpoint above Portland town that looks out over Chesil beach and West Dorset.

Portland boasts a fantastic range of independent retailers, some of which are featured on these pages. They all provide an outstanding service and are another great reason to visit the island.

Red House Property

A Thriving Portland Business

ESTABLISHED in 2004, Red House quickly became a leading independent estate agent in Portland specialising in residential sales and lettings, offering property for sale in and around Portland and property to let in Portland, Weymouth, Wyke Regis and Chickerell. Owners Ian and Elspie Munro-Price have a wealth of experience in the property market and are happy to discuss your property requirements.

Our sales department concentrates very closely on the Isle of Portland, this means we have become specialists in this area and can offer advice to help you sell your property for the right price in any market. National exposure through the TEAM network gives hundreds of offices the chance to sell your property through our unique multi-listing.

Our established lettings department covers a far wider area, including the whole Weymouth, Chickerell, Wyke Regis and Portland area, offering a range of services and advice to owners of cottages, houses and apartments alike.

If you are looking for the right agent to help in your move, we can assure you we are committed to providing a top-drawer service in a friendly and efficient manner that you will find hard to beat.

In 2007 we established Red House Holidays to satisfy a growing demand for shorter-term holiday lettings for properties within reach of Dorset's Jurassic Coast, offering the same friendly and efficient service to cottage owners and holidaymakers.

At Red House we feel we can now offer the complete estate agency solution for property owners, buyers, tenants and those wishing to holiday in the area.

Edana Minghella to perform at 115 Club

BRIDPORT'S only dedicated dinner and music venue, 115 Club, last week enjoyed a fabulous performance by Barbara J Hunt, supported by Pete Maxfield on Double Bass. The pair, who only recently began their collaboration, performed lively numbers, showing how music can entertain, enthrall and encourage. Barbara is a philosophical lady, understanding the roots of music and using this to make her performances personal and meaningful, while Pete offers up some of the finest Double Bass ears have ever heard.

Next time at 115 Club, the wonderful "raw power and emotional intensity" of Edana Minghella will be on display, supported by Pete Maxfield and Mick Smith. Edana, an Anglo-Italian talent of the finest standard, will perform Jazz and Blues, offering beautiful lyrics, including tracks off her album 'Still on my Feet' (released November 2011). Edana Sings the blues like no other, her voice will tear your heart out, and her arrangements are sensitive but sublime, with world-class musicians, simply stunning.

Edana's music has lit up many a stage, but also film, having featured tracks in the films 'The Talented Mr Ripley' & 'Truly, Madly, Deeply'.

115 Club always ensures a wonderful evening is had by all. The intimacy of this cosy cellar setting guarantees the mood is set for an exclusive evening of entertainment.

For more information check out the 115 Club's own site at www.115club.com or www.facebook.com/115club or Youtube "115club" for video montages of previous gigs including Barbara J Hunt.

Toyota Prius plug-in wins Next Green Car award

THE Next Green Car Awards 2012 have been announced today with Prius Plug-in taking the honours in the large family category. The latest member of the Prius range, the Prius Plug-in has been on sale in the UK from 9 July.

Next Green Car uses its unique Green Car Rating (GCR) to rank the greenest new cars to come to market, honouring the most innovative low emission models with the Next Green Car Awards. The winners were selected from shortlist of 26 of the UK's greenest new cars of 2012/13, for their environmental GCR level of innovation, value for money, drive experience and design.

Dr. Ben Lane, Managing Editor of Next Green Car said: "The 2012 winners reflect two key elements underlying current green car development: downsizing and electrification. Over half of the winners also incorporate electric drive-trains, either as pure electric cars, plug-in hybrids or with start-stop. Well worth the wait, the Prius Plug-in adds over 15 miles of zero-emission capability to the well proven standard Prius. A car which offers the benefits of an electric vehicle, but without the limitations of battery range."

Matt Harrison, Toyota (GB)'s Commercial Director said: "We are delighted that the Toyota Prius Plug-in has won the Next Green Car Award, particularly as it coincides with the new model going on sale in the UK. Plug-in hybrid represents the next step in Toyota hybrid technology, providing all the benefits of an electric vehicle but none of the downsides in terms of limited performance or driving range. As world leaders in hybrid technology we have now sold more than four million hybrids globally since launch."

For more information about the winners of the Next Green Car Awards 2012, visit: www.nextgreencar.com/awards-2012.

Alfa Romeo extends warranty to five years on Mito and Giulietta

ALFA Romeo is extending its current three-year warranty by a further two years across the MiTo and Giulietta product ranges to provide retail customers with added peace of mind on their new car purchases.

The news comes as the Italian sporting car brand launches the Alfa MiTo TwinAir – featuring the award winning 875cc twin-cylinder turbo engine with variable intake valve technology and sub-100g/km CO2 emissions.

The new extended warranty will consist of 36 months' unlimited mileage warranty, plus a further 24 months' mechanical warranty on all Alfa MiTo and Giulietta retail purchases. The additional cover protects the vehicle against manufacturer defects and component faults.

Damien Dally, Head of Brand, Alfa Romeo UK says, "Our strategy for the brand is all about attracting new customers. However, we appreciate in the current climate consumers are more risk averse and likely to stay with what they know."

"The Alfa Romeo brand has always had a strong emotional pull but we also have complete confidence in its rational credentials and believe our new extended five year warranty provides the retail car buyer with complete peace of mind."

The promotional five-year warranty will be available to retail customers until 30 September 2012.

To arrange a test drive or for more information on Alfa Romeo, visit www.alfaromeo.co.uk or call 0844 870 0147

DORCHESTER BOXING CLUB NEWS

Knockout year for Dorchester Boxing Club

THE Dorchester & District Amateur Boxing Club celebrated another tremendous year with the Annual Trophy Presentation followed by their AGM.

Chairman Steve Scott reflected on the outstanding achievements of the last twelve months and thanked all the boxer's and coaches for their hard work and dedication.

■ BEST JUNIOR MALE: Angus Dunn receives his award from club chairman Steve Scott

He said it had been a hard season for the boxers, some of whom have boxed several times, but they have all excelled themselves and worked so hard.

He also thanked the councils Small Grants Funding Committee who had kindly provided the club with two new AIBA approved head guards.

The chairman finished off by congratulating and thanking everyone for making the AGM and Trophy Presentation a special and memorable evening for the boxers, coaches and volunteers.

Head coach Ben Geyser said: "The boxers deserved their individual trophies, but it is fair to say that the whole club deserve praise, because each and everyone gives time to spar, inspires and supports those who box for the club."

Awards winners were:

Coaches Boxer: Sol Gilday-Evans; Best Senior Male: Travis Walden; Best Ringcraft Skills: Kieron Clewett; Most Improved Senior: Tom Hillier; Boxers Choice: Reece Legg; Best Senior: Travis Walden; Most Improved Junior: Joe Malpas; Most Dedicated Senior: Andrius Pacharevas; Leadership Skills: Peter Ewan; Coaching Skills: Mark Sheldon; Most Consistent Senior: Adam Grey; Most Consistent Junior: Matt Grey; Most Sporting Boxer: Antonio Diaz; Most Talented Newcomer: Storm Look;

Most progressive Junior: Henry Jeff; Most Progressive Beginner: Ollie Breen; Best Junior Male: Angus Dunn; Most Promising: Liam Legg; Most Conscientious: Saul Randall; Most Competitive: Jamie Gosney

Double disappointment for Dorchester duo

DORCHESTER Boxing Club's Joe Malpas and Andrius Pacharevas both failed in their attempts against local boxers in Swindon Horseshoe ABC's last tournament of the season.

Malpas in his first bout was matched against Bartek Mrosczyk who already had one bout under belt.

From the first bell Malpas traded on his physical strength, working Bartek into the corner and letting rip with a barrage of fast body pummeling punches. The second saw Bartek waiting to land the big pay off punch, but Malpas although a little untidy at times showed a cool maturity, absorbing Bartek's best punches without even flinching.

Malpas was proving to be solid and durable; able to go the full distance jabbing nicely.

As the bout progressed into the third he was looking more confident and landing accurate and sharp exchanges, but found scoring difficult as Bartek buried his head behind his gloves. In the final seconds Bartek reinstated his authority with a flurry of late punches which clinched him the decision.

Malpas said afterwards: "I'll never forget the thrill of that first bout; every time I caught Bartek. I could hear booing and I could see in his face that he wasn't liking it one bit."

Coaches Ben Geyser and Jonjo Look both thought that their boxer looked strong enough at times to have stopped his man.

Pacharevas was pitted against James Townsend who was making his debut, and came out behind a vicious jab, looking to box, and his first right punch suggested the fight wouldn't go the distance. He moved in close, firing in a few lefts and then delivered the finishing combination only to be stopped by the bell.

In the second round Pacharevas landed solid body hooks and at one point looked like he might break the vulnerable Townsend.

However he proved not everyone falls at the first hurdle, and came back and threw plenty of left and rights although missing more often than he landed.

Townsend was scrappy in the third, trying everything he knew to keep the elusive Pacharevas under control, who countered or parried everything that came his way, and the last minutes turned into a frantic, absorbing set to, much to the fans approval.

Despite his successful opening and faultless punch stopping style throughout, Pacharevas lost the decision on points.

The boxers agreed that the show's atmosphere was electric, well patronized with over a thousand spectators they definitely would go again; a great night.

■ GREAT SUPPORTER: Jake Collins wins a special Team Support Award from Steve Scott for being such a great supporter of the boxer's and club, and is hoping to take part in skill bouts next season.

Demons hold the upperhand

DRIVING wind and rain failed to dampen the spirits of teams taking part in this year's annual Battens charity beach volleyball tournament in Weymouth.

Twenty two teams braved the weather for the event which raised more than £1,000 for the Alzheimer's Society.

In a hard-fought final the five strong Agincare Demons beat a rival team from the Weymouth-based care provider, the Agincare Angels 17-15 to be crowned champions.

Team captain Mark Baker said: "We're absolutely over the moon at winning. The weather's not been on our side but it's a brilliant event and we've had a really good time."

This year's tournament was the fifth to be staged by Battens and attracted teams from a wide variety of companies and organisations. A team from Stratton Village Hall won the 'Best of the Rest' final.

Trudy Braithwaite, Battens' Marketing Manager said: "All the teams showed true British grit in the face of some appalling weather and the tournament was a great success. Our thanks go out to everyone who took part and helped raised money for such a well-deserving cause."

Battens is a Legal 500 firm with offices in Weymouth, Yeovil, Sherborne and Dorchester.

BOWLS NEWS: Olympics no barrier for tournament

DESPITE difficulties attracting the usual number of entrants to the 53rd annual Weymouth & Portland Bowls Tournament because of perceived concerns about traffic access and congestion as well as parking and increased accommodation costs during Olympic year, numerous local clubs including those from London, Weston-super-Mare, Bristol and Poole have registered teams.

The tournament, a regular event on the bowling calendar, in fact fall between the end of the Olympics and the commencement of the Paralympics, meaning traffic access to the town and car parks will be open as usual.

In addition the organisers are able to offer entrants car parking vouchers valid at the Swannery and Lodmoor car parks which provide access to the Melcombe Regis and Greenhill club's at a cost of £15 for the week.

The event will be played at the Weymouth and Melcombe Regis, Greenhill and Wellworthy clubs between August 20th and 24th, and will be officially opened by the Deputy Mayor, Ray Banham. The final will be played at Greenhill Bowling Club.

This year the Tournament will take a different format to normal with the introduction of a High 5 Open Classic competition that will be open to teams of five players; men, ladies or mixed.

Teams will be drawn into groups with each team in a group playing an inter-group round-robin. Each team will be free to arrange themselves to play two sessions each day.

In their first session each team will play games of singles and rinks, and in their second session play pairs and triples.

Each day points will be allocated to each team's individual game and overall match result within their group.

The winning teams from each group and the best overall runners-up from the groups will go through to a knock-out semi-final and final contest.

The remaining teams will be entered into a knock-out Plate Competition requiring teams to arrange themselves to play only pairs and triple contests. For the entry fee of only £6 per player, teams will be guaranteed four days of bowling. Also by popular demand the usual knock-out Men's Triples competition will be held each evening, Monday to Thursday with the final scheduled to be played on the Friday Final's Day.

Throughout the week, food and refreshments will be available for purchase at each of the greens by competitors and spectators.

Sponsorship for this year's tournament is currently being provided by Weymouth & Portland Council; Co-operative Funeral Care; Bluebird Care, Weymouth & West Dorset, and Jenny Andrews, ensuring that all High 5 Open Classic and Plate competition finalists and the Men's Triples finalists will be well rewarded, with prize monies totalling £1,500 at stake on finals day.

There are still some vacancies in both the High 5 Open Classic and the Men's Triples competitions, so anyone contemplating entering a team is urged to submit their entry asap.

Tournament Secretary Doug Wise said: "The Olympics coming to the town this year, has proved a deterrent for many of the regular competitors that normally attend from all over the UK."

"This is the reason why the usual straight knock-out Men's Single and Pairs, Ladies Pairs and Mixed Pairs contests have been replaced this year by what we have called the 'High Five' Open Classic competition, which has the added incentive that entrants are assured of four days of bowling."

"Prize monies from our sponsors have been forthcoming and we are currently awaiting confirmation from the Kings Hotel Group that they will once again be sponsoring the evening Men's Triples competition as usual."

Entry forms and tournament details have been distributed to the majority of bowling clubs throughout the county, but if additional forms are required they can be requested from Dave Wise on 01305 783470.

Melcombe continue to shine in county league

ONCE again dismal, wet weather welcomed players onto the green when Melcombe 'A' played Borstal Officers in their County Division One contest.

The Melcombe rink of Tony Colton, Mike Walker, Mike Brown and skip John Samways had an evenly fought contest in the early stages against the visitors skipped by Derek Wensley, but then took control, eventually providing a fine 23-6 shot victory for the hosts.

George Constant, Roger Skidmore, Bob Bover and skip Andy Crawford had a more positive start against the Borstal rink skipped by John Hamilton.

However Borstal produced a dramatic fight back and on the penultimate end were only two shots behind.

Crawford, with the final bowl of the game to play, was one shot with a measure for two shots down, but bowled his wood and judged the pace of the green perfectly to draw shot and take the game for Melcombe 19-16.

The third Melcombe rink of Paul Emeny, Bill Bailey, Doug Plumpton and skip Dave Wise had a nip and tuck start to their game until jack movement gave the Borstal rink, skipped by Trevor McCollm, five shots.

It was with two ends to play that Wise eventually took a two shot lead which was increased with Melcombe finally winning 15-11, to give them a 24-shot overall advantage and all 10 points to strengthen their position in the County League.

Stapleton-Probus, a Bristol-based team, made their annual visit to Melcombe Regis this week, an annual fixture that has been held for some 25-years, and were welcomed by President Roger Williams & Captain of the day Roy Dodwell.

Early rain looked to have put the dampeners on the event but then to the amazement of all concerned the long awaited summer sunshine arrived to provide an excellent warm afternoon.

The match was a victory on all rinks but one for the hosts that ended in a 20-20 draw, with a final score of 124 - 87.

Simpkin delighted with potential

DORCHESTER Town manager Phil Simpkin was very impressed with the standard of trialists that attended the Magpies first training session last Thursday, and hopes to sign one before the week is out.

A total of 44 players were put through their paces by the management team of Simpkin, assistant-manager Stuart Heath and coach Mark Jermyn in preparation for the new season which starts on August 18th.

"Unfortunately the atrocious weather on Saturday meant that many were unable to make the second session, but despite having to switch to the 3G astro pitch the 24 present still managed over 1½ hours before even that surface became waterlogged.

Simpkin said: "Thursday's session was brilliant. Stuart Heath, who is a terrific acquisition to the club, put them through a really impressive routine, and there were some really good trialists present.

"With Saturday's weather, a number of them who come from the west country were unable to make the second session, but we will be having a look at them again this week. It's frustrating but there isn't much you can do in the circumstances, I don't know of any other local clubs that managed to get any time in."

Simpkin believes there are half a dozen who have impressed him, one in particular from the east of the county.

"There were some good quality players that turned up, one in particular that I have had my eye on for sometime. He has already visited the Avenue to have a look around, and I hope that I might be able to sign him this week. He is a wide player and seriously good!"

With limited funds, Simpkin is aware that he doesn't have the budget to sign too many, and so will have to be selective.

"Having decided to retain all last year's squad, funds are limited. However having a settled squad gives us an advantage over other sides that have rebuilt their team. People say if you don't change things players get stale and complacent. Well I think the lads here know that if that happens they will lose their shirt.

"Such is the spirit in our squad at present that it will be a huge benefit to any new player, as they can walk into the dressing room and get a warm welcome."

Simpkin is grateful for Christchurch for stepping in as opponents in Saturday's first friendly of the season.

"Kettering Town were due to visit but they have problems at the moment and cancelled the game. However Christchurch have kindly rearranged things to help us out."

The Magpies entertain Eastbourne Borough in their opening Blue Square South fixture which will see latest signing Ben Watson pitted against the side he left to join the county town.

Simpkin is under no illusions that it will be a tough game, despite having home advantage on the first day for only the second time in five seasons.

"Tommy Widdrington has spent a lot of money on new players. They see themselves as promotion hopefuls, and I know Tommy wouldn't have taken the job had he not believed that, so it will be a difficult game, but then so will every one be in this division.

"We know we are the rank outsiders because of the club's size and finances, but we like a challenge, and as we showed last year, we fight well above our weight."
